I HAVE inquiries for tenements to rent, also for low cost houses from parties desiring to purchase and I would be pleased to serve parties who desire me to handle their interests in this line. Have a large number of building lots and a few houses in this vicinity. M. W. Wheelock, real estate agent.

MR. N. N. OSBORN well known at Woodstock, Mich., was troubled with a lame back. He was persuaded to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It gave him relief in one night. This remedy is also famous for its cure of rheumatism. For sale by C. Blackely and W. E. Terrill & Co.

PENSIONS of $6 to $12 a month are paid soldiers, rich or poor, with slight disabilities, contracted in or out of service, under act of June 27, 1890. Those now pensioned under this act can complete any suspended, delayed or rejected claim under the old law, and receive the arrears. Widows entitled, without regard to cause of soldier's death. No charge unless successful. Address: T. J. Deavitt, Montpelier, Vt.

The appearance of Mlle Rhea in "Frou Frou" at Blanchard opera house next Friday evening will be the most brilliant theatrical event this winter. Rhea is no stranger to a Montpelier audience, and her reappearance is hailed with delight. In "Frou Frou" her every movement and sentence shows the finished artist and actress. Not only is Rhea superb in herself, but she is surrounded this season by a coterie of artists who handle a great many part-roles. The engagement is for one night and seats are now on sale at Ehle's book store.

Do you want anything in the line of drugs and medicines—no matter what? If you call on Fred A. Ainsworth, proprietor of the new Williamson drug-store, on Depot street, one door east of J. K. Lynde's store, if perchance, he may not have exactly what you desire, he will aim to supply you in the shortest possible time. If good goods and honest prices and square dealing will do it, he is bound to secure a fair share of public patronage. Sewing-machine supplies and a popular line of stationery are specialties. Give him a call.

This three-year-old boy of J. A. Johnson of Lynn Center, Ill., is subject to attacks of cramp. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Brothers of that place, and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but he selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the world over for its cure of cramp. Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by C. Blackely and W. E. Terrill & Co.

Washington County Court.

State v. Charles Daniels of Woodbury. The respondent was convicted of an assault and battery upon one Mary Gray, the indictment being for assault and battery with intent to injure. In re Susan W. Warren's will, R. W. Warren at alia. The testator, late of Middlesex, revoked her previous wills and made her son George A. Warren her sole and residuary legatee and executor of her will. The will was dated October 24, 1893. This instrument was duly proved in probate court as her last will and testament and was allowed and established as such. An appeal was taken by Rufus W. Warren of Middlesex and Albert L. Warren of the city of Barre, as son and heirs at law of Susan W. Warren, who filed objections to the execution, and to the credibility of the witnesses. A question was made that the testator was not of sound and disposing mind at the time of the execution. The question of fraud and undue influence was raised and the last objection asserted that it was not the last will and testament. The value of the property involved in this suit is placed by one of the attorneys in the case at about $3,000. The case came on for trial by jury Tuesday morning. T. J. Deavitt and W. A. Lord for the proponent; H. A. Huse and Frank Plumley for appellants.

REV. C. H. BASMAJIAN, a native of Armenia, took charge of the meeting for young men, held last Sunday afternoon in the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association. Mr. Basmajian also spoke at the Baptist church Sunday evening on "The Crucifixion Against the Cross." This lecture was illustrated by stereoscopic views and Mr. Basmajian sang several selections in the Turkish, Armenian and English languages.

THE baked-bean supper, given last Wednesday evening by the ladies of the Church of the Messiah, netted about $25. The new piano was christened and proved satisfactory in every way. George H. W. Decker, Professor F. L. Lawrence and Miss Jessie Lawrence gave a brief piano recital that lasted thoroughly the tone and power of the new instrument. Solo by Solilo Blanchard added no little to the enjoyment of the programme.

UNDER the head "To transact any other legal business" the vote of the city at last week Tuesday evening to build a wooden bridge on the site of the present foundry bridge, is sure to be brought up at the special city meeting to be held in Armory hall next Monday evening. The inhabitants of that part of the city are very indignant at the action of the council, and propose to ask the voters to direct to give them some relief in the matter.

A LARGE audience gathered at Trinity church on Monday evening to hear the illustrated lecture on "The Slaves of New York," by Professor Van Liew. The bright and dark sides of New York city were forcibly illustrated by flash light pictures, and a lecture was interspersed by singing of hymns thrown upon the canvas. Prof. Van Liew has been engaged for several

LADIES' FUR COATS.

Our Wombat Coats for Ladies' are superior to other makes in several very important points. First—Our coats are cut to fit the form, and not to hang like a bag. Second—Our coats are cut from three to eight inches longer and the skirts are cut much fuller than other makes. The fullness of the skirts begins at the waist, not at the hips, thus assuring a perfect and easy fit over the present style of dress skirts. Third—The collar is cut on a perfected pattern and will cover the neck and ears without disarranging the hair. Fourth—The skins are especially selected for ladies' coats, and are soft and pliable, making a most comfortable coat to wear. The coats cost the wearer no more than the other kinds.
